“ I love you aunty! I always cherished the times I would run into you. You always had hugs and laughs at any moment I seen you, even if it was for a minute. You will truly be missed. I love you "aunty cow" always and forever

“ She was a really great person to know she'd always leave you with a smile. She would make your day just talking about what ever comes to mind she would always help without asking she was awesome that way. Gonna miss her great smile a really nice lady to know. Miss you love.
