JUNE (MYERS) KITTING

Alma June Kitting, 87, of Toppenish died Thursday, March 12, 2015, with her family gathered around her. June was born on June 27, 1927 in Goldendale, WA to Cecil and Gladys Myers, who moved the family to Toppenish in 1930. She was married to Donald Kitting in September 1947 and they raised four children while living in the Seattle area.

They moved to

Toppenish in 1979.

June was an active member of the Toppenish United Methodist Church for the last 4 decades.

She and Don owned Star Electronics Video Rental until retirement in 1995. As part of the business community, she was a member of the Toppenish Chamber of Commerce and was named Woman of the Year in 1985 and received many other community and lifetime achievement honors. She was also active in the Mt. Adams Country Club, Toppenish Mural

Society, Toppenish Parks & Recreation and Fortnightly Literary Club.

June is survived by her four children, Susan Adams of Henderson, NV, Linda

(James)

Thomson of Sun City West, AZ, Michael Kitting of Toppenish and Judi

(Robert) Kitting-

Peterson of Newcastle, WA; five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and her brother Dale Myers of Olympia, WA.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Don, her sisters Lila Myers and Lucille Oldfield, and her brother Vernon Myers.

A joint celebration of life service for June and her brother Vernon Myers will be held at the

Toppenish United Methodist Church on Tuesday, March 17th at 11 am. Vernon Myers was born in Toppenish on September 3, 1931 and he passed away at his home in Tacoma, WA on December 25, 2014.

Friends can send condolences to www.toppenishfunerals.com. The family suggests memorial contributions be made to the Toppenish United Methodist Church, Toppenish Mural Society, or the American Cancer Society. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ June was such a community service oriented person. I remember always being able to count on her when I was chairing some event. She more than carried her load. She will be missed. Condolences to the family, from Jim Flint and Karen Spence.
