“ Dear Schnellbachs: Your Mom was a wonderful person. Knowing her and visiting with her was fun and interesting. She was a brave lady, who came with, as the saying goes, a lot of baggage," Love, compassion, morals, integrity, and to see that you all succeeded by doing it right." Very hard working, very caring. She often sang all your prasies, very proud of all of you and your familys and accomplishments. Yeah, she mentioned the screw-ups too.. Can't get away from that one. HaHa Being there for you and you for her, kept her going and gave her what she needed. You all were very devoted and caring. Her greatest accomplishment, besides her great love of you guys, was the nice tribute you paid her at her Rosary Service: "She Was Our Mother" Your love, understanding, respect, and caring was summed up in that phrase. That's what I would want to hear my children say. You are a wonderful family, of whom both your parents loved and was pround of. Our deepest sympathy, Jerry and Carol##imported-begin##Jerry & Carol Johnson##imported-end##
