“ So many trips to visit my beloved Grandma Alma! When I was young she always made time to braid my hair, give me toys to play with, and sneak me candy. We had some wonderful family reunions and Alma was always the highlight of the day. I loved hearing her voice. She graced us with her presence for many generations and was the heart of our family. We will all forever cherish our memories of her. God bless.

“ Dearest grandma we will never forget that you taught us always to build a longer table, to love unconditionally, and that Life is what is valuable. We are so grateful to have been blessed with so many years with you in our lives. We will all miss you more than any words can ever convey. You always had your wings even here on earth and now you soar with God in heaven.
