

Altagracia Aurora Mancillas

July 8, 2005 - October 19, 2023

Altagracia Aurora Mancillas passed from her earthly home to her forever home with Jesus on Thursday, October 19th, 2023. Altita was born on July 8th, 2005 in Toppenish, WA, to Walter Mancillas and Artemia Hernandez. She was raised in the Lower Valley with a lot of love from her parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, and friends. She was the oldest of her siblings and always cared for her sisters and brothers. Altita loved to make everyone smile and laugh, she love to sing and play various sports. This year she graduated from Naches High and was very proud of this accomplishment. Since a young girl she enjoyed working; helping her dad run a firework stand in the summers and making her own money. Altita recently had returned home from working housekeeping in the Seattle area. She also worked security at concerts and aspired to start college next year. Altita will be remembered as having a heart to help and love others. She will be loved and missed by many. Altita is now home with Popa Frank and grandma Tina whom she loved and adored since the day she was born.

Altagracia is survived by her father Walter Mancillas, her mother Artemia Hernandez, her stepfather Servando Suarez, her siblings: Josefina, Artemia, Evangelina, Solomon, Jeremiah, Serenity, Niamiah, Dominic, Stephanie, and Daisy, by her grandmother Celia Hernandez, her grandfather Martin Ramirez, numerous uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends.

She is preceded in death by her grandfather Frank Hernandez and her grandmother Ernestina Hernandez, uncles Michael Hernandez and Carlos Hernandez, and beloved family members and friends who await her.
