

Alvin Wayne Minthorn

January 23, 1937 - March 26, 2014

Alvin W. Minthorn (77) of Harrah passed away at his home on Wednesday March 26, 2014. He was born in Pendleton, OR on January 23, 1937 to Wilbur and Lucy (Williams) Minthorn. Alvin graduated from high school in Pendleton and served our country in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict. He worked as a wildland firefighter, and for the Wapato Irrigation District and retired as a flagger in road construction. He enjoyed pool, bowling, rodeoing, and dancing. He was a very traditional person who valued his customs and will be remembered for his smile and ability to make others laugh. He is survived by five daughters, Tina, Alice, Leona Minthorn and Lela (Tim) Vigio all of Wapato; Celeste (Steve Jr.) Goudy of White Swan; two sons, Matthew (Rosemary) and David Minthorn both of Wapato; two brothers, Leslie (Pat) Minthorn of McKay Creek, OR and Roger (Marcia) Minthorn of Warm Springs; one sister, Lorene (Roland) Spencer of Satus; numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren and nieces and nephews. Dressing services will be held at Colonial Funeral Home on Thursday March 27, 2014 at 2PM with overnight services to follow at the Toppenish Creek Longhouse in White Swan. Graveside services will be held at sunrise Friday at the Toppenish Creek Cemetery. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
