

Angela Goudy

March 19, 1965 - March 12, 2013

Angela M. Goudy (47) of Toppenish passed away at Yakima Valley Memorial Hospital surrounded by her family on Tuesday March 12, 2013. She was born in Madras, OR on March 19, 1965 to Gordon Smartlowit and Pamela Goudy. She was a member of the Yakama Nation and raised her children in Warm Springs where she worked as a grocery clerk/cashier and early childhood substitute teacher. Angela moved back to the valley in the early 2000's. She enjoyed the casino, spending time with her children, traditional activities and dancing & attending pow wow's as a young lady. Angela will be remembered as a woman of faith with many friends that would always greet you with a smile and leave you saying " I Love You".

She is survived by her significant other, Robert Johnson of Toppenish; her parents, Gordon Smartlowit of Toppenish and Pamela Goudy of Wapato; three daughters, Pamela Kalama, Toni Lynn and Rianna "RiRi" Fuentes all of Warm Springs, OR; four brothers, Kenny Hoptowit of The Dalles, OR; Eldon, Gilbert and Vernon Smartlowit all of Toppenish; three sisters, Rianna Hoptowit of White Swan, Betty Hoptowit of Wapato and Julie Smartlowit of Toppenish. She was preceded in death by one brother, Eugene Smartlowit and her maternal & paternal grandparents. Dressing services will be Thursday (today) March 14, 2013 at 9AM at Colonial Funeral Home. The family will leave at 12PM for Warm Springs, OR for visitation at the Agency Longhouse at 4PM. Overnight services will be conducted and a funeral at sunrise Friday at the Agency Cemetery. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com.

Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
