

Angelia M Strong

August 7, 1954 - November 12, 2016

Angelia M. Strong (62) of Wapato was called home Saturday November 12, 2016 at Cottage in the Meadow in Yakima. Angelia was born in Toppenish on August 7, 1954 to Virginia Tahkeal and Walter H. Baily. She graduated from Toppenish High and YVCC. She played softball and basketball and was a member of the Yakama Nation. She worked for numerous tribal programs. While living in Seattle she was a caretaker for Ed Comenout for 25 years. She loved to cook, bake and sew throughout her entire life and loved the holidays and spending it with her loved ones. She was a member of the Wilderness Church and her passion was being a servant to others.

Angelia is survived by five children, Chanelle (James) Jahr, Simon Strong III, Brian (Carmen) Strong, Angel Tahkeal and Heather Strong; eleven grandchildren; four sisters, Teresa Jane Bailey, Aurelia (Stan) Shuster, Cleo (David) Clark and Muriel "Bem" Tahkeal-George; and one brother, Clifford Bailey. She was preceded in death by her parents; her grandsons, Samuel L. Strong, her uncle, Henry "Stous" Tahkeal and her nephews, Christopher "Fina" Soliman and W. Jackson Smith.

Dressing services were held at Colonial Funeral Home Monday November 14, 2016 at 1PM with evening services at the All Tribes Christian Church in Wapato. Funeral services will be at 8AM Tuesday at the church with burial to follow at Yemowat Cemetery on the Ahtanum Ridge. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ We were classmates at Toppenish High School. We went to Europe together with Sandra Jim, Patricia Umtuch, Mildred Piel, and Wilma Sam. We were all friends in high school. I remember her always smiling and friendly to everyone. I have missed her and am sad that we didn't keep in touch. My heart is heavy today. My prayers to the family.
