

Audie R. Yallup Sr.

March 20, 1954 - December 17, 2013

Audie R. Yallup Sr. (59) of Wapato died at his home on December 17, 2013. He was born in Yakima on March 20, 1954 to Wilferd and Laritta (Sohappy) Yallup. Audie was a lifetime resident of Wapato and worked as a firefighter, forester and traditional gatherer. He was a member of the Yakama Nation and was a follower of the Washut faith. He is survived by his wife, Jacqueline Yallup; three daughters, Tamara Yallup of Portland, Ursula Yallup and Vanessa Jackson both of Yakima and Audie Yallup Jr. of New York; ten grandchildren; two brothers, Sky and Galen Yallup; nine sisters, Debbie Dogsleep; Selena, Leoda, Lorna, Emily, Amy, Ida, Annie, and Cindy Yallup. Dressing services were held at Wapato Longhouse on Wednesday December 18, 2013 at 2:30 with overnight services following. A procession left the longhouse on Thursday December 19, 2013 at 7AM for the Celilo Cemetery in Celilo, OR. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Audie R. Yallup Sr.

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM

“ Yi, I miss you so much, it's still unreal, I wish you were still here, I want to hear your voice, your laughter, your songs, your stories ~ I want to see you smile! So many positive, loving stories... My heart is sad.... until we see each other again, Love You! Miss You! xo Leopard##imported-begin##Leoda Yallup##imported-end##

January 02, 2014 at 04:06 PM