“ Joyce, Kevin, friends and family,
Marian and I send our love, thoughts, prayers and hopes regarding Barry's passing.
Barry was a great guy in life... and he will be again in the Lord's home. He was generous to a fault and a kind word always to share about anyone.
We miss him already even though it's been a few years since we last spoke. Until the Lord calls us all home again, rest my dear friend... rest in the Lord our God!
We'll maybe see you at the Rainbow Bridge with so many of the poor dog souls you helped save while photographing them.
Until then Barry, my friend...

“ I have fond memories of Barry through the Yakima Stamp Works.
He always was willing to go the extra mile in preparing various rubber stamps and signs for our office; and he worked with me on a couple of hobby rubber stamp, etc., projects. I really enjoyed knowing him and do miss him. I offer my own and Kay Funk's sincere concern and sympathy to his family and friends.###imported-

“ Joyce, I am so sorry to have read that Barry had died. I didn't realize that he had so been ill. I have always enjoyed you and Barry and your friendship. We always had good times out on the dance floor.

I will always cherish the memories we had together. Take care and call me if you need anything. I'm not far away.

You are in our prayers With love and sympathy. Jim and Nan##imported-begin##jim ide##imported-end##
