

Billy Joel Villareal

February 2, 1981 - December 16, 2025

Billy Joel Villareal, age 44, of Toppenish, Washington, passed away on December 16, 2025. He was born on February 2, 1981, in Fort Collins, Colorado, the son of the late Oscar Villareal and Janie Lombardo.

Billy was truly the life of the party. When he walked into a room, he always had something to say, and it was never anything less than a good time when Billy was around. He brought laughter, energy, and a presence that could be felt by everyone.

Billy loved being surrounded by family and friends. He never missed a family function and was always checking in on those he loved, making sure everyone was okay. Everywhere Billy went, people knew him—he had a special gift for turning friends into family and loving people deeply and wholeheartedly.

Above all else, Billy's greatest pride and joy were his two daughters, Neyla and Isabella. He loved being their father and spoke of them often. When they weren't with him, he was always pulling out his phone to show pictures or videos of them. The love was mutual, and the smile on his face whenever he talked about his girls said it all. His love for them was unwavering and unconditional.

Billy was blessed to be deeply loved by two families—the Villareal family and the Soliz family. He was also blessed with two additional parents who helped raise him and loved him as their own, Geneva (Angel) Blanco and Jimmy Soliz.

Billy is survived by his parents, Geneva (Angel) Blanco and Jimmy Soliz; his daughters, Neyla and Isabella; his sisters Amy (Colorado), Sherry (Nick), Mary, Georgina (Jared), and Jennifer (Leonardo); and his brothers Robert, Rick (Belinda), and Chris (Veronica); along with many nieces, nephews, extended family members, and countless friends who became family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Janie Lombardo and Oscar Villareal; his sisters Olga and Laura Lynn; and his brother Oscar Villareal Jr.

A viewing will be held at St. Aloysius Church in Toppenish on Monday, December 22, from 4:00–7:00 p.m., with a Rosary at 6:00 p.m.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, December 23, at 11:00 a.m. at St. Aloysius Church in Toppenish, followed by burial at Zillah Cemetery, where Billy will be laid to rest.

A Celebration of Life will follow the burial at The Eagles in Toppenish, Washington.

Billy's energy, love, and presence will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ Billy was one of those people whose presence you could feel without him saying much. Solid, steady, and real. He showed love through actions, not words, and that's why his absence is so heavy. The world lost a good man, and those of us who truly knew him feel that loss deeply :(love you brother 😭 I will always carry your love and make sure your daughters will always remember you and know how much you loved them see you in the next life 😭😭😭😭😭

“ This one hurts deeply, it's hard to accept carnal, you not being with us anymore 😞 😞

😞 I loved you like a brother, growing up with you was a gift. So many good memories and badass stories about the good old days.

Seeing you with your daughters brought joy to my heart, you inspired me in ways I can't share with you anymore. I will always remember you and speak your name to the world! Billy, Rebel you lived up to your name. Always speaking your mind and not giving a fk.. I didn't see you every day, or talk with you all the time but just knowing you were there made me feel a part of you in the way that a brother/ best friend would feel. As soon as we seen each other it was right back to where we left off... this isn't goodbye, this is I'll see you soon! I love you brother, say a seat for me! I'll see you on Monday 🙏😎☐👊👊👊👊👊👊👊👊👊
