

Brian Derek George

October 25, 1967 - August 3, 2020

Brian Derek George, “Che Chun Weshá”, 52, of , was suddenly born into eternity on August 3, 2020, in Kittitas County, Washington State.

Mr. George was born into time on October 25, 1967, in Toppenish, Washington, to atwi, Larry A. (E-Weyettona) and atwi, Tucelia Umtuch George (Towseli) and life-long resident.

He was a mighty Granger Bison at the elementary level and subsequently graduated as a Spartan of Granger High School in Granger, Washington in 1986. He entered the workforce as a gate guard for the Yakama Nation as well as a short time with the Yakama Nation Fisheries Department. His last job was working as a Quality Control Inspector with a local produce plant for a few years before deciding on an early retirement to enjoy life as he saw fit.

He enjoyed playing drums, guitar and the bassoon in the high school stage band and being one of the original “Pony Boys” He loved watching his NFL football Vikings (and every year was their year to go to the Superbowl ha!). His other favorite team was the Seahawks and he loved razzing everyone he knew about their teams. He also loved to read, play chess, play on his X-Box, Monopoly and watching endless movies. He was a Star Trek aficionado and while Captain Kirk and Spock were favorites of everyone else, his main man on the show was Mr. Scott because without him, the Enterprise did not move.

He enjoyed his family and traveling to various casinos. He had a great heart and always defended those that could not defend themselves.

He is survived by his sisters, Maryrose George Gonzalez of Toppenish, Washington; Laura Jean George Day (special brother-in-law, Steve, aka: "Mr." Canfield) of Toppenish, Washington; Nicole F. George of Toppenish, Washington; special brothers, Patricio Limon (Lucy) of New Bedford, Massachusetts; Paul Aguirre (Alicia) of Yakima, Washington. There are also nephews and nieces, Desiree (special nephew-in-law, James Clements), Elissa, Mari, Xavier, Vincent, Tucelia, Destiny and Savannah.

He was preceded in death by his parents, E-Weyetona coo Towseli; Grandparents, Simon John and Rose Yettona John, Archielone Umtuch and Mary Emmet Umtuch; a brother, Keith; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and a brother-in-law; and special companions, Melvina E. Olney and Vanessa Cree.

Arrangements with Colonial Funeral Home include an expeditious dressing/no viewing on Friday, August 7, 2020 with burial immediately following and concluding at Beavert Cemetery.

MASKS ARE REQUIRED; and there will be a limited supply of masks and gloves to those who do not have either item. It is appreciated if each attendee respect SOCIAL DISTANCING amongst your neighbor.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

AUG 7 (PT)

Beavert Cemetery
Satus, WA

Tribute Wall

“ Brian Derek George

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM

“ Brian was a good friend of mine in high school along with Pat, Paul, and Danny. I wished I had continued to stay in touch but we all get caught up in our own lives and the years just slipped by but I'm thankful for his friendship and the great memories that we had he was a true friend. You will be sorely missed.

Rey Venecia

Reynaldo Venecia - January 24, 2021 at 12:16 AM

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I have alot of good memories of Brian when we were young. Brian was a really kind hearted good man. I will miss you Brian. Alfonso and Coy Meza

Alfonso Meza - August 06, 2020 at 11:16 AM

“ RIP BDG 🙏🕯️🙏

Bernice Owens - August 05, 2020 at 10:17 PM