“ Carrie was my very sweet and dear friend. When we were in high school we shared a locker, we were not assigned that way, but we made it that way. The best part of school was the breaks in between classes when we could hustle to the locker to chat a while before our next classes. I also love going to basketball games with her and her support of me trying to be brave enough to talk to my crush at the game. I'm so glad I had her to share in my teenaged misadventures too. I won't go into that here (hahaha). We stayed in touch, I'm so grateful for that. And as it's always been, I will never be able to listen to David Cassidy singing without remembering how her singing along to " I'll Meet You Halfway" . Sounds silly but that was us.
