“ Carroll Frank was an honorable man. He loved his wife, children, family, friends, and community.
At Christmas time , we all knew where he lived. The reason: Carroll’s house & yard was “well “ lit up with lights and all kinds of decorations! The sight was awesome.... stunning many spectators throughout the Yakima Valley. People came from near and far... just to get a glimpse.
The day after Christmas, one would find Carroll shopping at Ace Hardware. He just had get more lights for the next holiday season. This was Carroll’s hobby. It was tradition . One that he loved and couldn’t do without.
Most people on his block regarded the ‘ole guy as a “big “ kid who had a big “ ❤️ .”
This opinion was repeated by many other people.....voicing their regards and secretly admiring him at the same time. He was a good man.
We will all miss Carroll Frank and his Christmas spirit, but probably not as much as Beverly who shared his enthusiasm.
Condolences to Carroll’s family, Bev, and his friends.
Prayers and blessing,
Richard and Karen Lommers
