“ Sincere condolences, may your loving, cheerful, caring soul rest in peace now that you have been called to your eternal home. I shall miss our brief visits and your cheerful smile you had even when you had difficult times your smile brightened any day. I will never forget you my friend, you were only one person I met who suffered the pregnancy itchy rash we shared that rare event what a connection you will be missed dearly.

Much love and comfort to James and Ella Jane, your Mother truly loved you two very much. Growing up she was my classmate and friend and that is how we stayed even tho we were related she became a Sister. Rest easy now Kate, I will miss our times in the kitchen at the longhouse cooking to feed the people.
