“ Our hearts go out to you on your loss. Dan was like one of the family, he would now and then stop by for a good laugh or two. I remember one summer day him stopping by and asking if he could play the flute for a good mexican meal I asked him to show me the flute which he did. I jokingly told him if he would keep the flute in his pocket that I would fix him that meal, we laughed and shared some good past memories that summer day, Dan will be missed. Jesus said in JN 14:2,4 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Dan enjoy your MANSION and PEACE with our LORD AND SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST.##imported-begin##Pete Saiz and Stella, Jeremy, Kabee, Savannah##imported-end##

“ Though I only met Daniel a few times my son spent many times with him. Daniel was one of the "good guys". It breaks my heart that he had to go in a violent way. Our heavenly creator knows our hearts and knows our pain He has taken Daniel home to a place of peace and real true love. That is the blessing out of this tragedy. Indian Dan you will be greatly missed please watch over us until we come home to you.##imported-begin##Cathy Hale##imported-end##
