Dave was born on November 5, 1939 in Lathrop, Missouri. In the late summer of 1946, the family moved to Toppenish. Dave was an active member of the Toppenish congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses and loved sharing his faith with others. His faith was the most important part of his life. Dave was an avid reader and studier, especially of the Bible and biblical history which gave him his solid hope for the future.

He spent much of his life working with his hands as an electrician, a farmer, and later as a school bus driver, a job he grew to love. He was known for his strong work ethic and his joy and sharing stories and showing others new places, whether on the road or on the farm.

He enjoyed hiking, snowmobiling and motorcycle riding, always drawn to the open road and the beauty of nature. Dave's quiet strength, sense of adventure and devotion to his family and his faith will be remembered with love.

The family would like to very much thank the staff at Avamere at Englewood Heights for their kind and loving care of Dave.
