

David Morrison

August 23, 1949 - February 19, 2012

David J. Morrison (62) of Glenwood passed away at his home on Sunday February 19, 2012. He was born in Yakima on August 23, 1949 to Bruce L. and Betty Z. (Carl) Morrison. David was raised and educated in White Swan and served his country in the U.S. Army. He worked as an ironworker, logger, trained horses and coached his children in basketball. He enjoyed going to casino's, playing pool, outdoor activities in the mountains, and working cattle. He was a member of the Yakama Warriors and a descendent of the Yakama Nation. He is survived by his mother, Betty Dahl of Yakima; two children, Bernadine Morrison of Toppenish and John Morrison of White Swan; five grandchildren; one brother, Don Morrison of White Swan and one sister, Clara (Michael) Gamache of Yakima. David was preceded in death by his father, one daughter, Parnessa and one brother, Dale. A funeral service will be at the Toppenish Creek Longhouse on Thursday (today) at 2PM. Graveside services will be at the Glenwood Cemetery at 11AM. Friends may send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
