“ Dear Deanna: We're all going to miss your delightful smile and laughter. Your friendship has been with our family for many years, as I am sure a great many feel the same. How can you begin to share all the wonderful things you have done in this world, but those who knew you will know in their heart & mind that we have lost a true friend. For your children we give our condolences and respect. Lord be with you and yours now and always.

Respectfully,
Renee & Jovan Spencer

I enjoyed working with Deanna; we shared a lot of laughs about life in general. I pointed out to her many times, she was bringing her husband's candy, cookies, to work, so he wouldn't eat them, but we would! She always had a good heart, and believed in our people, which showed in her work. I'm glad I had the opportunity to get to know her, even for a short time. Prayers for Deanna and her family.

I too enjoyed working with our late friend and colleague. She taught me and a few others a lot about patience and what it means to be working with so many younger individuals. I miss our conversations and laughter.

“ Safe journey to Deanna. You will be missed by many and loved as much.

Our skills playing pool was how we met. Good fun. Lots of laughter. We were much younger then.

Then worked side by side. Shared our work offices. Our friendship grew into a sisterhood. We witnessed many things together. Prayed, cried, and laughed together. Shared our faith, our hopes, our losses, and took care if each other.

Lost touch after her new location on employment.

She always had a smile. That contagious giggle. The hugs shared. A good lady. Will be missed.

My prayers and love to husband, son, sister, aunts, uncle, and friends.

Rest well Sister, you work here is done. All those we miss are lined up to greet you! 🙏🕯️🕯️🕯️🕯️🕯️🙏
