

Delores B Miller

December 29, 1935 - January 25, 2015

Delores B. Miller (79) of Toppenish passed away on Sunday January 25, 2015 in Toppenish. She was born on December 29, 1935 in Toppenish to Lawrence and Sally (Charley) Bennett. Delores was raised and educated in Wapato and graduated from Chemawa Indian Boarding School. She was an enrolled member of the Yakama Nation and the 1910 Shaker Church. Delores was involved with the Yakama Warriors thru her husband, Morris in fundraising activities and traveling with the group. She retired from Jeld-Wen after more than 25 years where she considered her co-workers family. Delores enjoyed reading, spending time with her grandchildren, weaving yarnbags, picking huckleberries, root digging, going to the casino and yard saleing. She is survived by two children, Benjamin and Suzanne Quaempts; one grandchild, Tristan (Lucinda) and three great-grandchildren, Kyle, Ida and Davian. Delores was preceded in death by her husband, Morris Miller Jr., a granddaughter, Latoya; two sisters, Edna and Bessie Bennett and a brother, Nathan Richards. Dressing services will be at 1PM Tuesday January 27, 2015 at the 1910 Shaker Church in White Swan. Overnight services will follow with a funeral at 8AM Wednesday at the church with burial to follow at the 1910 Shaker Church Cemetery. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Delores B Miller

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM

“ Attawishamash, In Me Ny Mo Ma, always in my heart. Words cannot express the loss of a loved one. Prayers for my family, I was very ill at the time of the funeral. Aunt Delores was always kind and loving. May she rest, she joins all her loved ones, LaToya and Uncle Morris, her sisters.

Dora Quaempts - February 11, 2015 at 05:39 PM