“ Rest in peace and safe journey to you Dina.
You made our families proud of your good work as a veteran, a mother, a wife, a sister, and as our friend.

My prayers and love go to her husband,
children, grandchildren, and family left behind.

Karen, you got her home! Good job. We prayed beside you on the challenge for her services, to come back home.

McKinley was where many grew up together. Mission kids! So many are gone today.

Family names Sweowat, Johnson, Spencer, Moses, Winnier, Wahpat, Quaempts-Kuneki, Miller, Wesley, Comenout, Teo, Sam,
George, Whitefoot, Blackeagle, Peters, Williams, Bailey, Tahkeal, Clark, Hansen, Hawk, Pratt, Jerry, Hunt, White, Gardee, Paul, Hadley and probably missed some names. We all grew up in what is now a university! The Mission we had the Runyuns, Dorothy, Ella, are few from the church.

We were blessed to share so much together as we grew up. Today many homes and people are gone. Makes me think back. We would not have it any different way.

I am glad you are home Dina, just it was a catch up visit. We pray family keeps us informed on how they are doing

Today tears are good. She is home. Today she meets those that we miss. I great rejoining, been too long.

Prayers and love.

Be safe. 🙏🔔🕯️🕯️🕯️🔔🙏
