

Emerson Bobb Jr.

June 20, 1959 - February 27, 2023

Emerson Bobb Jr. was born June 20, 1959 to Emerson Bobb Sr. and Jeanette Norwest in Salem OR. His paternal grandparents were Wilson Bobb Sr. and Iola Brown, and maternal grandparents were Leo Norwest and Mary Duvall.

Emerson graduated from Silverton High in OR. and shortly after joined the United States Marine Corps from 1981-1984 where he was stationed in North Carolina there he met and married his wife Vivian Louise Ingle. On January 12, 1990 they had one daughter Kimberly Leora Ingle who he adored. He came back to the Yakama Reservation in 1990 where he met his companion Lita Marie Afterbuffalo and on March 25, 1993, had a son Emerson Bobb III. Emerson was so excited to have a son he showed him off to everyone. Every time you saw him he would ask "Have you seen my son Emerson?" He was a proud dad of both children and was always showing pictures of his children and later pictures of Grandkids.

Emerson was a food prep cook at the Heritage Restaurant for many years. After that he worked at Legends Casino Restaurant and worked his way up from dishwasher to a food prep chef where he worked there until he was unable to work.

Emerson is preceded in death by both parents and siblings: Jesse Peone from Salem, OR., Everette Butler from Siletz, OR., and Marcella F. Butler from Siletz, OR.

Emerson is survived by his children, Kimberly Ingle of North Carolina and Emerson Bobb III of Granger, WA. A brother, Marcellus R. Butler from Grand Ronde, OR. His sisters: Everetta Butler from Grand Ronde, OR., Wilda Bobb from White Swan, WA., Mary Bobb of of Albany, OR., and Debbie Dimler of Aberdeen, WA. One Aunt Ramona Ahto of Seattle, WA. His Pride and Joy are Grandchildren: Allyviah, Aubrey and Kamden all from North Carolina.

A great man, always happy he shared a story once of how he was going to be kicked out for laughing.. and that person who was going to kick him out was the little lady I worked with in uniforms, she was so embarrassed that he shared that story with me. May he rest in peace and always will be remembered
