“ My best memory was going to the store on the weekends and after school to work with grandma and grandpa. Going with grandpa to set up for weddings and quinceneras. Then going over to the house every Halloween to help give out candy, lol we all fought to get to the door first 😊. Man I have so many memories and not enough room. But for sure I loved hearing grandma and grandpa tell stories and tease each other. They share a love/bond that I have never seen before and it is something I strive to have with my husband. Thank you grandpa and grandma for all the beautiful memories and for all the love you showed me growing up and for the love you showed my kids.
