

Evalyn Holmes

November 27, 1999 - January 1, 2009

TOPPENISH - Evalyn Rose Holmes, 9, of Toppenish died on Thursday, January 1, 2009 at Toppenish Community Hospital. She was born in Yakima, WA on November 27, 1999.

Evalyn attended school at Kirkwood Elementary and looked forward each day to seeing her caring teachers, giving them hugs with a big smile. A heartfelt thanks to the staff at Kirkwood for loving Evalyn and encouraging her to learn beyond what we ever imagined. She enjoyed playing with her brothers, sister, dolls and new play kitchen. Her favorite color was pink and especially loved anything with Tinkerbell or Disney princess. Evalyn was a true gift from God and shared that gift every day with everyone she came into contact with by her joyous smile, hugs and angelic personality. She reflected her name of Angel Face given to her by her cousin Kayla when she was a baby. She inspired all of us who watched her over the years overcome obstacles while never showing she was ever mad, sad or complained... only happiness. We are all a better person for having known her and her inspiring spirit will continue living on in our hearts and memories.

Survivors include her parents, Halona (Loni) Davis and Jason Holmes; her stepfather, Fred Gibson Jr.; two brothers, Kyle Davis and James Gibson; one sister, Jasmine Gibson; grandparents, Audrey Davis and the late Oliver Davis Sr. and Walter and Doris Holmes; special aunts/uncle, Pam and Aubrey Mayhue, Colleen and Gary Wentz, Alison Abercrombie, Kelly Hall, OJ Davis; special cousin, Kayla Wentz along with numerous other aunts, uncles and cousins.

Recitation of the Rosary will be on Thursday, January 8, 2009 at 6:00 pm at the Colonial Funeral Home Chapel. Mass of the Resurrection will be celebrated on Friday, January 9, 2009 at 10:00 am at the St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Toppenish. Burial and concluding services will follow at the Elmwood cemetery.
