

Evans "Gus" Kahclamat

March 2, 1935 - April 3, 2009

Evans G. "Gus" Kahclamat (74) of Dallesport passed away on April 3, 2009 in Toppenish. He was born in Spearfish, WA on the Columbia River on March 2, 1935 to Kennedy and Alice (Wahpat) Kahclamat. Gus was raised and educated in Spearfish, attended Evergreen State College and was the barber for the Westin in Downtown Seattle. He worked for the Seattle Public Schools for over 20 years retiring as a para-professional. Mr. Kahclamat was a well known traditional champion dancer that traveled the NW to numerous pow-wows. He was the head of the Spearfish Singers. He enjoyed attending swap meets and going to casino's. He is survived by two sons, Evans Butch Kahclamat of Seattle, Eugene Kahclamat of Dallesport; two daughters, Corrine and Colleen Kahclamat both of Seattle; two grandsons; two brothers and four sisters. Dressing services will be held at Colonial Funeral Home on Monday April 6, 2009 at 2PM. He will be moved to the Toppenish Longhouse for overnight services with burial following at the Winnier Cemetery south of Toppenish on Tuesday at 9AM. Friends may send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
