

Florence W. (White) Briones

January 25, 1936 - April 22, 2014

Florence W. (White) Briones (78) of Wapato passed away on Tuesday April 22, 2014 in Wapato. She was born in Tulalip, WA on January 25, 1936 to Johnny and Lottie (Wahpat) White. Florence was raised and educated at the White Swan Indian Mission. She worked as a waitress, seamstress for Bailey's in Yakima, Mt. Adams Furniture Factory and as a cook for the Wapato Head Start. Florence was an enrolled member of the Yakama Nation. She enjoyed sewing and yard saleing. She is survived by four sons, Ralph Sampson Jr. of Toppenish, Perry Sampson of Wapato, Timothy Sampson of Mabton and John Sampson of White Swan; three daughters, Tammy Gasca of Mabton, Mary Sampson of Tacoma and Teresa Tappo of Wapato; one brother, Dennis White of Wapato; 39 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; siblings, Calvin, Wayne, Williard, Jerry White and Ester Alexander; two children, Gary Sampson and Sandra Sampson. Dressing services will be at 3PM Thursday April 24, 2014 at Colonial Funeral Home. Overnight services will be at the 1910 Shaker Church Thursday evening with concluding services at 8AM at the church Friday. Interment will follow at the 1910 Shaker Church Cemetery. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Florence W. (White) Briones

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM

“ So sorry for your loss. Dolly always treated me as one of the kids as I tagged along to the mountains. She was such a nice lady. Our thoughts are with you. Jesse Wolfe

Jesse Wolfe - April 24, 2014 at 08:31 PM