“ My sincere condolences to the Family & Friends of Frank, may you be blessed with comfort, guidance, & strength in days to come. My life has been enriched in coming to know Frank through our place of employment, through knowing Creator, through our culture & traditions, through a one of a kind friendship.....life will not be the same without him stopping by my office, calling me to have lunch or dinner, bringing me laughter with his humor. He seemed to know when I needed his company, I shall miss him, I know he is satisfied with eternal rest celebrating in heaven with Creator & all the angels...
