Leaves behind wife, Trena Ann Currie Elwell of Ft. Hall, Idaho; Children he raised: Brandon J. Jackson, Ft. Hall, ID; Salina R. Crowe, Toppenish, WA; Shantai A. Crowe, Bellingham, WA; and Cody V. Crowe, Bellingham, WA; and numerous grand children.

Surviving siblings are, Karen Kay Elwell, Jolene Faye Elwell, West J. Elwell, Forrest H. Elwell, and Merle J. Elwell all of Toppenish, WA.

Also, surviving Aunt Wanda Elwell, Uncle Andrew Elwell, and Aunt Donna LeClair and numerous nieces and nephews, and cousins in Nespelam and Omak, WA.

He was preceded in death by: George Elwell Sr., Julianne Shaarnute Elwell; and deceased siblings: Joanne Hunt, Maurice G. Elwell, Goliath E. Elwell, Galen L. Elwell, Leanita M. Elwell, Carol J. Elwell, Genita A. Elwell.

Our beloved husband, brother, Uncle, cousin, and friend was called to (by) our Creator on July 6, 2023. Our relative, was very well educated at Toppenish high school and Washington State University, Pullman, WA., where he achieved his GED. He furthered his schooling in Albuquerque, NM at Southwest Indian Polytechnic Institute (SIPI) and later achieved his CDL at Fort Simcoe, White Swan, WA.

George traveled to Alaska for employment at a processing plant in Dutch Harbor, Alaska, which he enjoyed very much. His last employment was that Land Enterprise from 2014 to present in Toppenish, WA.

He was close to his coworkers, as great friends. He was also involved in Washut tradition and attended many Powwows, and stick games (hand games); most of all he was a huge Seattle Seahawks fan.

Dressing services will be on July 12, 2023, Wednesday at 1 PM with viewing to follow at the Toppenish funeral home. He will then be transported to White Swan longhouse on his truck for services and overnight services. Burial will be on Thursday, July 13, 2023 at 7:00 AM in the morning. He will then be transported to his final resting place at Yesmowit cemetery.

“ When I first moved out to Washington with my mom my uncle Sonny was always by my side he was happy I was out there. He was always such a bright person that could bring joy to your day. What’s so funny about my uncle is I would joke around with him saying he was grandpa he would laugh & say I’m not that old & it’s uncle not grandpa. He got away with me not putting cake in his face! I will always always be grateful he is my uncle.

Me and sonny were good friends in school. Especially in jr. High we always laughed .I never seen him after school .I remember him as 12 to 16 yrs old .I remember alot of fun times when we would go to the rollerena in union gap. I will miss him sorry for your loss. Sonny was a good hearted person . God be with you at this time.billy thomas
