

Grant Thomas Henry

April 8, 1954 - January 11, 2023

04/08/54 – 01/11/23

Our Dear Father “Grant Thomas Henry” aka Tom has passed away on Wednesday, 1/11/23 at age, 68. He was born on April 8th, 1954 to Elmer Henry and Viola Alexander. He got married to Nina Henry (Yniguez) on July 11, 1982.

Grant was passionate of his family, fishing, playing pool, watching his favorite sports team, watch horseracing and gambling. To his family he always told them to always stick together. He loved spending time with his grand children. He played pool in upper and lower valley leagues.

He loved to go fishing at cooks landing. There, he learned and fished with his atwai grandfather James Alexander and Clifford Alexander. Grant always spent his time at cooks fishing. It always brought a smile to his face to go out on the boat and spend time with his family.

He loved to watch football, basketball and baseball. Especially, his favorite was the Seahawks, cheering them on from his home.

He loved gambling at many casinos, mainly Legends casino you would see him at the craps table or slot machines.

In his past work, he worked at the Yakama Nation RV Park as a groundkeeper. There he worked for many years. Meeting new people that come and go when stayed. You would always catch him smiling, joking with the customers. Many would know his face because he was always helpful and friendly.

He leaves behind his spouse Nina Henry. His children: Thomas Henry, Annie Henry (Charlie), Nina Henry Jr. (Roy) and Charlene George (Allen). His grandchildren: Andrew Henry, Thomas Henry Jr. and Carla George.
