

Gregory Fulmer

September 14, 1952 - August 25, 2009

Greg W. Fulmer (56) of Toppenish died on Tuesday August 25, 2009 in Toppenish. He was born in Yakima on September 14, 1952 to William and Jeane L. (Stratford) Fulmer. Greg was raised and educated in Toppenish. He continued his education at ITT in Portland studying electronics. He worked as a loss prevention specialist all over the southern part of the United States out of college. He worked for Pacific Power as a lineman for several years and for the last 13 years as a truck driver for Haney Trucking. Greg enjoyed shooting guns, riding motorcycles, driving truck, anything to do with electronics and singing karaoke and his favorite songs were "The Rose" and "House of the Rising Sun". He was a member of the Toppenish Legion, Toppenish Eagles and the IBEW out of Pasco. He is survived by his mother, Jeanne Fulmer of Toppenish; his sister, Joyce "Nellie" (Danny) Fulmer-Stephens of Toppenish; three aunts, Sharon Matti of Portland, Helen "Sugar" Wyatt of Yakima and Maurene Robinson of Bellingham; his dog, Butch; and his two ducks, Lucy and Ethel. Greg was preceded in death by his father, Bill Fulmer and his grandparents.

“ Jeanne, Joyce and Dan,
I was not sure that visiting Greg last April was the thing to do, but Dan told me to go talk to him and share about what was going on. I feel that he knew I was there and I am very thankful I spent that time. Greg and I spent alot of time growing up in the neighborhood with Stan Febus the Cobb brothers and Pat Perrault. BB gun wars, dirt clod fights, fishing, playing army, all the things we got to do growing up in that wonderful little town. Once we graduated alot of us left and never get to see each other very often. At the service there were people that made a committment to spend time together at occasions that are not goodbyes but smiles and hellos. Greg ,Please know we will miss you during these times and you will not be forgotten.

“ To Greg's Family,
I had the joy of working with Greg his entire time at Haney. I so enjoyed him.
He would come into the office and he was always positive, never just griping. It was fun to see him coming.
We talked often about a wide variety of subjects. He was a very fine man and I am so glad I got to know him. His accident was so tragic. May the Lord bless and keep you in this difficult time.
Greg was a good man.
