“ Thanks for leaving us with so many pleasant memories and for loving and caring for our sister perfectly. We firmly believe you fought hard to live because of that love and devotion to her. You always were a fun and understanding brother-in-law to us. We will meet again one day and I'll be looking forward to spinning on the dance floor with you once again. Rest In Peace.

“ Sara, Lisa, daughter from New Zealand, and rest of family:
I am so sorry to hear of your loss of husband, father, father-in-law, and grandpa.

Ignacio “always” appeared to be a kind, soft spoken individual... whenever he came to the pharmacy. I enjoyed talking and visiting with him, as well as visiting with his family members when they came to pick up medicine and supplies for Ignacio or Sara.

I hope you will continue to be a united, loving family. It is so refreshing to see this kind of behavior. What a blessing!

My condolences on the loss of your “special” loved one.

Prayers and blessings,

Karen Lommers
