“ Words can't express the sadness in everyone's heart at hearing of Chi's passing. He was truly one of the best guys you could ever know. His infectious smile and laugh will never be forgotten. It's apparent he touched so many lives over the years. Sending prayers of strength to Becky and his family during their time of grief. ~Kelly (McGovern) Bennett

“ He is a wonderful and a great teacher! It was an honor for me to got to know him. He taught me a lot in carpentry. I appreciated his help so much and will hold on tight to the memories. We went Ice skating with the FFA. This was so much fun!
Heaven could have waited for him 😭

“ Chi was my fastpitch, he was Joker and awful one at that, and he would give that sly smile of his like he knew something you didn't know, but you were going to find out later about. Nonetheless that never stop him give you big hug when you felt down, he had way of just reading people and bring out the best in them. I am grateful for him and his family , this loss has hit everyone so hard. God bless you Chi and all of his loved ones. Happy heavenly Birthday Chi .

“ Chi was one of the good ones..... I can't say anything that hasn't already been said. Well, wait. He was stubborn.. he would never call me by my name it was always the nickname I had growing up. That is the memory that makes me smile when I remember him. He loved to tease me about it. I gave up correcting him in my Junior Year of high school. One of the best things about Chi is that I never saw him without a smile on his face, this usually made me smile even if i was having a bad day. My heart goes out to the family at this difficult time. RIP Chi...you will definitely be missed and forever remembered.
