

Ivan Selam

September 26, 1965 - September 6, 2008

Ivan S. Selam (42) of Wapato was found on Saturday September 6, 2008 in the Yakima River. He was born on September 26, 1965 in Toppenish to Ned Selam and Marion Sconawah. He was raised by Eddie and Edna Sconawah and educated in Wapato. Ivan was a member of the Yakama Nation and the 1910 Shaker Church. He worked as a laborer picking fruit and enjoyed drawing, beadwork, fishing, and canning his own fruits and vegetables. He is survived by three daughters, Jackie Selam, Letisha and Sarah Albert all of Wapato; three grandchildren; three brothers, Everett Selam of Wapato, Norman Sweowat of Yakima and Gregory Brockery of Spokane; five sisters, Christine Sconawah-Vargas of Wapato, Regina Selam of Oregon, Tina Shippentower of Wapato, Timiway and Julia Selam both of Warm Springs. Overnight services will be held at the 1910 Shaker Church in White Swan Wednesday evening with funeral services at 6:00AM Thursday September 11, 2008 at the 1910 Shaker Church. Interment will follow at the 1910 Shaker Church Cemetery. Friends may send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Ivan Selam

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM

“ My condolences to the Sconawah/Selam Family. My prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Armetha Smiskin##imported-end##

September 16, 2008 at 02:48 PM