“ Saying goodbye to a loved one is the hardest thing to do. Jack loved and was loved by many and he will be missed. Jim has so many fond memories of Jack, always with a smile and a story and of course his hat. The guys up in the orchard called him "Pepper Jack" because he always came with a bag of peppers from Maggie's garden. May all of your memories keep him close in your heart always.

“ "Every man dies. Not every man really lives." William Wallace - Jack Feil knew how to live, laugh and love. He understood that life was for the living and he did just that. He lived life with a twinkle in his eye and a spring in his step. When Jack Feil walked into a room, he lit it up with his quick smile and kindhearted teasing. To be in his presence was to lighten whatever load you were carrying. He gave sacrificially of his time and resources, served unselfishly, and through it all, you could hardly wipe the smile off his face. To be a member of Jack Feil's family was to know what it was to be loved unconditionally. Jack touched so many lives in his 75 years on this earth. I will never be the same for having been blessed by this good man who showed me time and again what love looks like. I love you, Uncle Jack. I commit your spirit now to the God who has always loved you. May you rest in peace, sweet uncle and friend.##imported-begin##Karen Feil##imported-end##

“ One helluva good guy...seems like the world is running out of men like Jack. When I was a teacher at West Valley High School, Jack would stop daily to share the weather, news and a laugh. He would always bring fresh fruit for the kids helped and helped Danny Jones with FFA alot. Whenever he needed work done on his Ford pickup he paid me off in Maggie's homemade pies...almost always delivered warm. My heart goes out to the family, such a senseless loss, but what an incredible man.

“ Jack was a wonderful man and he help me tremendously when I became a custodian at the W. Valley High School. I always give all the credit to Jack when people comment on my custodial skills. Bit of a "prankster" too. He made us laugh and was always there to help.....The world has lost a wonderful man...
All my prayers and thoughts are with the family and the friends. May you rest in peace in Jack and know you will never be forgotten.
