

James Starr

June 12, 1965 - February 29, 2008

James Richard Starr, Jr. (42) of Wapato died on Friday February 29, 2008. He was born in Portland on June 12, 1965 to James Starr, Sr. and Annette Kishwalk. Mr. Starr was an enrolled member of the Yakama Nation who was raised in the Yakima Valley and educated at Pascal Sherman and Riverside boarding schools and earned his GED. He was currently employed with M&M Catering. James was a very talented young man who had many friends and was known for his drawings and arts and crafts work. He was devoted in caring for his son, Trent, who as well loved his daddy as the two of them were inseparable. He was a big Portland Trailblazer fan. He made an everlasting impression on all walks of life with his smile and concern for others. He will be greatly missed by all. He is survived by his mother, Annette Starr of Wapato; his son, Trent Tomalwash-Starr of Wapato; his grandmother, Louise Frank Woods of Wapato; three brothers, David (Betty) Dick of Yakima, Rick (Trish) Starr of Wapato and Brian (Madeline) Starr of Toppenish; two nephews, Richard and Brian, Jr. and one niece, Shaelee Starr all of Toppenish; his uncles, Ervin Kishwalk and Samuel Starr; aunt, Monica Clark and many other family members. He was preceded in death by his father, James Starr, Sr., his grandfather, Sam Starr and his step-grandfather, Joe Woods. Dressing services will be on Saturday March 1, 2008 at 11AM at Colonial Funeral Home. He will be taken to the family home Saturday night. Overnight services will be at the Toppenish Creek Longhouse on Sunday evening with burial Monday March 3, 2008 at 8AM at the Toppenish Creek Cemetery. Colonial
