

James "Jim" Morris

January 30, 1939 - February 24, 2012

James P. (Jim) Morris (73) of Toppenish passed away at his home on Thursday February 24, 2012 surrounded by his family. Jim was born in Yakima on January 30, 1939 to William and Ruby (Langdon) Morris, one of four children. He spent the majority of his life in the Toppenish area and met his wife, Shirley Caffrey in White Swan. They married on October 13, 1961. He served in the U.S. Army from 1956 until 1959 on a tour that took him to Europe. He was honorably discharged with the rank of specialist. Jim worked in various capacities for years for John I. Haas. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, and camping with his family. He was also a woodworker who made ornaments and figures in his workshop. He could fix almost anything broken and find a solution to any problem. Jim and Shirley were members of a CB radio club. He will be remembered by his family as a loving husband, father and son who spent as much time as possible with his family, and provided around the clock care for his mother and wife in their final days. He found comfort in the company of his animals. Jim is survived by four daughters, Margaret (Donald) Meyers of Payson, UT, Linda Morris of Marysville, Susan (Greg) Wilt of Ft. Irwin, CA and Amy (Clarence) Hoptowit of Yakima; one son, Nathan Morris of Toppenish; ten grandchildren; one brother, Roy Morris of Lebanon, OR and a sister, Mary (Herman) Winberry of Emmett, ID. He was preceded in death by his wife, parents and step-father, Minnith Couch and one sister, Von Cupit. Visitation will be on Monday at Colonial Funeral Home from 11-12 with a graveside at 1PM at the Zillah City Cemetery. Friends may send condolences
