“ Sending my heartfelt condolences to Jeff's family and friends. Jeff was one of my oldest friends, dating back to grade school. Throughout junior high and high school we shared countless laughs together. We had very similar loves for bad-pun humor and favorite shows like Mash and Saturday Night Live. We often shared art classes together where I was always so impressed (and quite envious!) at his talent. And although I loved music, it was Jeff who taught me more than anyone about the Beatles and Rolling Stones. We lost track of each other around 1984. But I was so glad to reconnect with him through Facebook over these last eight or nine years. It was nice to see we still shared a lot of the same interests in music, art and politics. I miss him greatly and I hope that his loved ones are comforted by warm memories of Jeff.
