“ My memory of Jimmie is how he would always take care of me and the trips to the store were always fun with him oh and the car rides back were my favorite I loved the jokes he made always made me laugh I miss are trips to the store tho very much whenever we went to the store I would always be on the side of the cart while he grabbed the stuff we needed lol and whenever he would come over he would always bring me something and then we would sit there laugh and tell jokes and do other fun activities.... I miss him very much.....
