This handsome young man, with his big smile, and his laughter, as well as the hugs and messages he shared with you as he met you and greeted you, will be missed by so many. It will take a long time to adjust and know we will not share any more visits. It is a comfort knowing he was greeted those that he missed, and that he will no longer be ill and hurt. Kidd has been set free of all those pains and illness'. To the children, the sisters, the parents, the nephews and nieces, the cousins, the Auntys, the Uncles, and all he grew up with, his many friends - recall the good times you shared, the fun times, and let him rest. Kidd would not want anyone feeling bad, upset, and see you crying. He would want you happy, being with those you love, share a laugh and a smile. Live a good life, and when your turn comes, you will be reunited with him. Kidd had so many plans yet, that he left incomplete. Kidd was way too young to be suffering with what ailed him. Recall the fun times and then let him go. I pray God will take care of your emotions and your tears, as we move on. Rest In Peace, our Son, our Kidd, and go with God. I loved you so much, and will miss you! Peace, Love, Prayers. Gina J.
