April 10, 1945 - June 6, 2026

Larry was born on April 10, 1945 in Napa, Idaho to Frutoso (Joe) H. Carranza and Lorraine Whitney. He was an enrolled member of Three Affiliated Tribes, New Town North Dakota. Larry spent his formative years growing up in Mabton, Washington, living with his paternal extended family.

In 1969, he would marry his wife of 57 years, Alice Carranza. Together they had one daughter, Regina Carranza, his casino buddy. Larry was blessed with two grandchildren, Isaiah and Alyssa Cole-Carranza, whom he loved very much.

In 1982, Larry received his M.A. degree in social work. His work experience included working for the state of Washington DCFS, Bureau of Indian Affairs, and Nak-Nu-We-Sha.

He will be sadly missed by his family.

“ My most sincere condolences to you and your family Alice. I never had the honor of meeting your beloved husband but I loved the stories you would share of the prepping of the summer pool and time you would spend together, being exceptional grandparents and safe adults for many. Please accept our condolences and prayers through this sorrowful time.

“ My sincere condolences to Larry's family. Larry was one of my many first cousins. I was one of Jesse Hernandez's kids. Larry was quiet but always nice to us when we visited Aunt Ruby. He played checkers with us and always let us win. 🙏❤️😔
