

Leigh Marlin Colfax

April 18, 1969 - June 2, 2014

Leigh M. Colfax (45) of Wapato passed away on Monday June 2, 2014 in Yakima. He was born in Toppenish on April 18, 1969 to Leroy Colfax and Marlene Yallup. Leigh was raised and educated in Wapato and worked as a laborer. An enrolled member of the Yakama Nation, Leigh was an accomplished artist who enjoyed spending time with his family, playing cards and board games. He was an animal lover always taking care of his pets and a war dancer at pow wow's as a young man. He is survived by his mother, Marlene; two brothers, Lorenzo and LaMero Colfax all of Wapato. He was preceded in death by his father and a brother. Dressing services will be held on Wednesday June 4, 2014 at the Toppenish Longhouse at 2PM with overnight services to follow. Funeral services will be at sunrise Thursday at the longhouse with interment to follow at the 1910 Shaker Church Cemetery. Friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Leigh Marlin Colfax

---

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM