

Leo D Mondragon

March 3, 1959 - July 6, 2021

Leo Daniel Mondragon (62) was born March 3rd, 1959 in San Manuel, Arizona to Albino Mondragon and Virginia Alexander. He was raised and educated in Washington state, graduated in White Salmon. Excelled in wrestling, loved spending time in the mountains hunting and fishing. He worked for Forest Service in Wind River Nursery, fought fires, drove long haul and log/chip trucks.

Leo is survived by two sons, Jacob (Tigard, OR), Lucas (Lebanon, OR), and a daughter Vanessa (Beaverton, OR), six grandchildren, four brothers, Casey Cree, Jeffrey Cree, George Hogue, Nathan Hogue, and two sisters, Judith Cree Brewerton and Susan Hogue, and numerous nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents and two brothers. Services for Leo will be held on Friday July 9th at 11am, at Heggie's Colonial Funeral Home, burial to follow at Reservation Community Memorial Park in Wapato.

Cemetery Details

Reservation Community Memorial Park

West Wapato Road 5 miles west of Wapato
Wapato, WA

Previous Events

Funeral Service

JUL 9. 11:00 AM (PT)

Heggie's Colonial Funeral Home
228 S. Alder Street
Toppenish, WA 98948
(509) 865-3222
info@heggiescolonialfuneralhome.com

Burial

JUL 9 (PT)

Reservation Community Memorial Park
West Wapato Road 5 miles west of Wapato
Wapato, WA

Tribute Wall

“ Leo D Mondragon

October 05, 2023 at 11:22 AM

“ I remember my husband Ron taking his little brother up moose hunting in Idaho we was just getting up the Sally Ann and Ron shot a moose Leo smiled and hollered there's moose in Idaho good shot big brother we had a great time that weekend we was traveling there it was so windy we get to the Clearwater Casino there brother Casey asked how we was able to travel during there tornado we looked at each other and said oh that's why it was so windy hahaha good times with Ronald Cree Jr. and Leo Mondragon my brother in law you will be missed my condolences to his 2 sons and daughter..... and all family left behind.....

mary cree - July 08, 2021 at 07:53 PM