

Leonard Hansen Sr.

June 28, 1964 - August 26, 2009

Leonard D. Hansen Sr. (45) of Toppenish died in Toppenish on Wednesday August 26, 2009. He was born in Toppenish on June 28, 1964 to Frederick and Martha (Clark) Hansen. Raised and educated in Toppenish, Leonard was a member of the 1910 Shaker Church, the Yakama Nation and worked at various warehouses in the fruit industry in the valley. He was a true optimist always looking to brighten someone's day. He enjoyed spending time in the mountains hunting and fishing. Leonard is survived by two sons, Leonard Hansen Jr. and Thomas Hansen both of Wapato; and two sisters, Bertha Elwell of Toppenish and Lilla Biles of Grandview. He was preceded in death by his parents. Dressing services were held on Thursday at 1PM at Colonial Funeral Home. He went home overnight and public overnight services will be Friday at 7PM at the 1910 Shaker Church in White Swan. Funeral services will be at 8AM on Saturday with interment to follow at the 1910 Shaker Church Cemetery. Friends may send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
