“ Prayers and <3 to the family. I met Lola years and years ago when she played basketball with my lil sister. I would tease her about the song about her, and after that would greet her the same way there after with that song. She was a wonderful basketball player.

Became a friend with her on facebook and watched her courageous battle with cancer.

Used to stop by the tribal newspaper and talk with Lola and of course had to sing "L-O-L-A Lola" to her each time. She would always give me her beautiful smile. RIP my friend.
