

Lori Lynette Martinen

June 13, 1960 - February 12, 2025

Lori Lynette Martinen, 64, of Toppenish, Washington was born June 13, 1960 and passed away unexpectedly, February 12, 2025, at Multicare Memorial.

Lori was born to Delmar and Charlene Bangs just shy of their first anniversary June 20th in Toppenish, WA. A few years later, her baby brother Stephen was born. Lori grew up and lived in Toppenish all of her life. She spent her childhood playing with her brother Stephen and cousin Glen "Little Raymond" Bangs. She had many fond memories of time spent with her grandparents, swim team, and cheerleading and canning fruits and vegetables with her parents and grandparents. Lori graduated from Toppenish High School in 1978. During her senior year she began working at Central Valley Bank, continuing to work there for many years, later moving on to Catholic Credit Union. After leaving the banking industry, she worked at Skone and Connor's until staying home to raise her children. Lori often talked about Skone and Connor's and how it was the best job she ever had.

Lori met Eric Martinen and they began dating in 1982 and were married March 21, 1987 at Holy Resurrection Catholic Church. The two shared a wonderful life together raising their daughters, Julie and Beth, and were so excited for the new chapter in their lives, as Eric retired July 31 from 45 years at his family's business, Ideal Lumber and Hardware.

Lori loved being a mother and was fantastic at it. The amount of time, effort, and love she put into her mothering was immeasurable. Lori was known for her cooking and her love of acts of service, care, and sharing with others. Lori was promoted to Grandma in 2019 and fell naturally into her role. She was lovingly known as “Mimi” or “Mim” for short by her grandchildren. Lori was a constant in her grandchildren's lives and watched them during the day while their parents worked, as well as organized and hosted numerous impromptu sleepovers. Mimi would often say “My littles won't want to do this forever, so I will take all the sleepovers I can.” There was not anything she wouldn't do for Ridge, Andrew, Jenna and Lauren. They will deeply miss her loving presence in their lives.

Lori is survived by her husband, Eric Martinen, Mother, Charlene Bangs, Brother, Stephen (Tammy) Bangs, daughter, Julie Martinen and daughter, Beth (Adam) Sandoval, 4 grandchildren with one expected in July of 2025 and numerous nieces and nephews.

Lori is preceded in death by her Father, Delmar Bangs, Grandparents, Lloyd and Catherine Bangs, and Conrad and Stella Wentz.

Graveside services will be held at 11am on Thursday, February 20, 2025 at the Zillah Cemetery. Luncheon to follow at Zillah Civic Center.

“ *Eric, Charlene, and family's,
There are no words at this time that can reach or ease your pain at such a devastating loss for all of you, and Lori also, with a life ended way to soon, of someone who gave so much, enjoyed our so much.
It's said, that God has a plan for all of us, but for now that does not touch your pain or shock, but may later help with your grief and healing.
Lori left behind cherished memories, great love, that she shared and was a part of with and for all of you.
It's hard to forget someone who meant so much, but may Lori's love, in time, bring comfort and healing.
Our deepest sympathy,
Jerry and Carol Johnson and family*

“ Charlene, Eric, Julie, Beth, and Grandbabies- Our hearts go out to each of you during this difficult time. Lori was a very ,caring lady. She took pride in her relationships with all.

Your daughter, wife, mother, or grandmother was very special. Not only to her family, but to friends , and relatives alike! Her many other acquaintances (too)were treated with kindness and respect. :)

Lori was a very special gift to all that knew her. God has welcomed an angel to his kingdom.

Blessing and prayers,

“ Lori was the first person I trusted to take care of my first born. I was so hesitant to put her in daycare, and when Lori offered to care for her, my heart knew this was the perfect person for the job. She was caring, loving and took the best care of Kennedy. I know she was the best mother to her girls, it was obvious. She will be so greatly missed. Love to all of you.
