

Lorraine Huylar

July 30, 1918 - May 8, 2010

Lorraine J. Huylar (91) of Yakima passed away in the presence of family on Saturday May 8, 2010 in Yakima. She was born on July 30, 1918 in Yakima to Frank and Clara (Mears) Gauthier. Lorraine graduated from Toppenish High School in 1936 and married Gene Huylar in April of 1937 at St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Toppenish. She and her husband owned Huylar Construction where she worked as the bookkeeper from 1947 until retiring in 1982. Mrs. Huylar was a longtime member of St. Aloysius Catholic Church until moving to Yakima in 1982 and then she joined Holy Redeemer Church. While raising their family they enjoyed spending time at Rimrock Lake with their family at their cabin. In their retirement they liked to travel in their 5th wheel with various travel groups. Lorraine will always be remembered for her great sense of humor and for her immense love for her kids and grandkids. She is survived by her son, Larry (Kay) Huylar of Toppenish; her daughter, Betty (Walter) Wolf of Zillah; six grandchildren; and fourteen great-grandchildren. Lorraine was preceded in death by her husband, Gene in 1985 and six siblings. Visitation will be held at Colonial Funeral Home from 1-6PM Thursday May 13, 2010. Recitation of the Rosary will be at 6PM with Mass of Christian Burial to be on Friday at 10AM at St. Aloysius Catholic Church. Interment will be at 2PM at Calvary Cemetery in Yakima. The family suggests that memorial contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice. Friends may send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Betty: You were very blessed to have your mom for so many years. God must have needed her in heaven now, but she left you with many memories until you see her again.
