

Lyle "Butch" McMillin

October 8, 1960 - July 18, 2024

Lyle "Butch" Eugene McMillin Jr., a beloved partner, father and grandfather, passed away on July 18, 2024, in Yakima, Washington, at the age of 63. Born on October 8, 1960, in Riverton, Wyoming, to Lyle Eugene McMillin and Kay Lou Henderson, Butch lived a life full of passion, dedication, and love.

Butch spent most of his life in the Yakima Valley, where he became a well-known and cherished figure. He was actively involved with the Toppenish Eagles, an organization close to his heart. His rodeo talents earned him a scholarship to Walla Walla Community College.

In 2013, Butch met the love of his life, Devon Dale. Together, they shared a deep love for horses and barrel racing, creating countless memories and strengthening their bond through their shared passion. Butch was a true cowboy, embodying the spirit of the West with his rugged determination, love for the land, and unwavering sense of loyalty.

He gained recognition for his exceptional skills in bulldogging, winning countless buckles during his teens and early adulthood. Despite his tough and growly exterior, Butch was known for his heart of gold, always willing to go the extra mile for his friends and family.

He is survived by his beloved Devon Dale; his son and daughter-in-law Cody and Daytra McMillin; his grandson, Clayton McMillin; and his sister, Donna (Kent) Warnes. Butch also leaves behind numerous family members, friends and those who became like family throughout his journey.

A graveside memorial service will be held on July 27, 2024, at 11 a.m at the Reservation Community Memorial Park Cemetery in Wapato. Following the service, please join us at the Toppenish Eagles to raise your glass to Butch one last time to celebrate his life and the indelible mark he left on the hearts of many.

Butch's legacy of kindness, dedication, and love for his community will forever be remembered by those who had the privilege of knowing him.
