“ Aaron, Noreen, Kim, and families of our late loved one; We send our prayers and lots of love to each of you. Today she is seated beside our Creator, and her days of suffering are over, she has received a new body that is healthy, she rejoined those who traveled ahead of her, and she is sharing her beautiful smile and they are 'catching up'. We all have our special memories of what we shared with her. I remember how she brought us huckleberries when my son's father left us, because she knew we could not travel to the mountains, and we could not handle the foods, her words of encouragement, and most of all how strong she was, she never gave up. I will truly miss her, she never ever told me any bad words or shunned me, always accepted me just like I was, even before I changed my life around! I had other obligations I had to take care of, so I was not there physically, but my prayers and thoughts were with each of you. Take care of one another, love lots, and God bless. Love and Prayers, Gina & Family###imported-begin##Gina Jerry###imported-end##
