

Martina Little

November 3, 1944 - March 25, 2008

Martina R. Little (63) of Wapato died on Tuesday March 25, 2008 in Yakima. She was born in Riverton, WY on November 3, 1944 to Richard and Anna (Bell) Brown, Sr. Martina worked as a teacher's aide in the public school system in Wyoming. She moved to the Yakima Valley in the early 1990's. Martina was a member of the Northern Arapahoe Tribe. She was known as "Momma Tina" to everyone. Spending time with her family, listening to music, telling children about their heritage, beadwork and going to the casino were her hobbies. Martina especially enjoyed the time she spent raising her granddaughters, Zina and Chastity Long Soldier and the great-grandchildren she was able to enjoy. She is survived by two daughters, Darla Sanchez of Riverton, WY and Verna Long Soldier of Portland, OR; two sons, Artie Long Soldier of Toppenish and Richard Long Soldier of Riverton, WY; six grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; three brothers, Richard Brown, Jr. of Taos, NM, Royce Lone Bear and Marcus Brown, Sr. both of Riverton, WY; six sisters, Florita Soldier Wolf of Riverton, WY, Violet Brown of Spokane, Mildred Wahpat and Jenny Miller both of Wapato; Patricia Herrera and Joyce Brown both of Granger. A wake will start on Friday March 28, 2008 at 5:30PM at 522 Larena Lane in Wapato. Mass of Christian Burial will be on Saturday March 29, 2008 at 9AM at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church in Wapato. Family and friends can send condolences at www.toppenishfunerals.com. Colonial Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
