“ So sorry to hear of Michaels passing. I guess you could say he was a client of mine but I never really sold his home, it never worked out with the buyers. But in the time I worked with him I got to know him and his wife. I took care of his beautiful German shepard dog Buck for him until he found a place to move. You know I had to call him to give his old friend back because Buck thought my chickens were his chew toy . Michael felt bad and gave to me a great elk head with antlers that hangs in my living room --I love it. You know in my business I meet many people and Michael will always be one of my favorites--very nice guy. I can hear Michael yelling in heaven "Buck get over here" --oh yeah Buck is in heaven too!!! after Michael came and got Buck from my house and took him to his new place the neighbor shot old Buck ---he was chasing the neighbors chickens. RIP Michael
